

About the Authors

Parthasarathi Shome is Chairman, International Tax Research and Analysis Foundation (ITRAF), Bengaluru. Earlier, he was Adviser (Minister of State) to the Indian Finance Minister. He received the highest civilian honour of the Brazilian Government, Commander of the Order of the Southern Cross, and the Jeanne S. Mattersdorf Award of the National Tax Association of America as “an outstanding student in the field of taxation and public finance” for his Ph.D. Thesis from the Southern Methodist University.

Ramon Dwarkasing is Chairman of the Forum on Economic and Fiscal Policy, The Netherlands, an international think tank for economic and fiscal policy. He is a former Associate Professor at Maastricht University. He holds a Ph.D. in Transfer Pricing from Tilburg University, the Netherlands.

Philip Baker QC, of the Field Court Tax Chambers, Gray’s Inn, London, is Visiting Professor at the Law Faculty, University of Oxford. He has a Ph.D. from the London University.

Ashima Goyal is Professor, Indira Gandhi Institute of Development Research (IGIDR), Mumbai, Member of the Reserve Bank of India, Technical Advisory Committee, and Chair of the Board of the Metropolitan Stock Exchange of India. She has a Ph.D. from the Bombay University.

Sandhya Garg is Associate Fellow, National Council of Applied Economic Research, New Delhi. She has an M.Phil. and is doing her Ph.D. at IGIDR. She is a recipient of various grants and a participant at international and Indian conferences.

Rohitash Chaudhary is Research Associate at ITRAF, Bengaluru. Earlier he served as Consultant, Tax Administration Reform Commission, Government of India, Delhi. He has an M.Sc. in Financial Economics from the Madras School of Economics.

Mukesh Butani is Managing Partner of BMR Legal, a tax advisory firm in New Delhi. He is a Chartered Accountant, has a law degree and practices as an advocate. He is presently a member of the Permanent Scientific Committee of the International Fiscal Association and Vice Chairman of the Tax Commission, International Chamber of Commerce, Paris.

H. Padamchand Khincha is a Partner at H. C. Khincha & Co., Bengaluru. He has Chartered Accountancy and Bachelor of Law degrees. He is a frequent lecturer at professional institutes.

P. Shivanand Nayak is an Associate of H. C. Khincha & Co., Bengaluru. He has Chartered Accountancy and Bachelor of Law degrees. He has written a number of articles in professional journals.

Contents at a Glance

Preface	v
About the Authors	vii
Detailed Contents	xi

Part I Introduction

Chapter 1	A Review of the Chapters	3
------------------	--------------------------------	---

Part II Evolution of International Taxation

Chapter 2	The Mercantilist Paradigm: History and Basis of BEPS	31
Chapter 3	BEPS: Emergence of International Tax Law and Future Direction	51

Part III Econometric Analysis of Non-resident and Resident Firm Behaviour

Chapter 4	Emergence of Cross-Border Taxation and Firm Behaviour	73
Chapter 5	Impact of Firm Characteristics on Firm Revenue and Tax	94

Part IV Consideration of Selected Issues in BEPS Actions

Chapter 6	Alternative Mechanisms to Make Dispute Resolution	113
Chapter 7	Right to Sovereignty and Domestic Tax Laws	137
Chapter 8	Challenges in Country-by-Country Multinational Reporting Requirements	153
Chapter 9	Multilateralism in the BEPS Initiative: Pros and Cons	171

Part V

Usefulness of BEPS Actions in Combination

Chapter 10	Impact of BEPS Actions on Indirect Taxes.....	201
Chapter 11	BEPS Actions: Concerns, Ramifications, Conclusions.....	237