

Insights into Evolving Issues of Taxation

Existing and Continuing Challenges

Edited by Parthasarathi Shome

In an emerging economy as large as India with its own complexities that often emerge from the very nature of its tax policy structure and rudimentary administration, tax reform remains a constant challenge. Formulation of tax legislation and its subsequent administration have suffered persistent lack of analysis prior to implementation.

At present there are many issues in direct and indirect taxes that are on the Indian Government's plate awaiting discussion, resolution and implementation.

ITRAF researchers comprising a team of renowned tax experts have carried out in-depth research that breaks the mould. The experts include:

- Dr. Parthasarathi Shome, Chairman, International Tax Research and Analysis Foundation (ITRAF), Bengaluru
- Srinivasan Pagalthivarthi, Chairman of the Indirect Taxation Committee of Bangalore Chamber of Commerce and Industry (BCIC)
- Mukesh Butani, Non-executive Chairman of the firm and Managing Partner of BMR Legal
- Indraneel Roy Choudhury, Tax Partner, PwC India
- K.R. Sekar, Tax Partner, Deloitte and Head of the Global Business Tax Practice for Deloitte India
- K. R. Girish, Senior Partner at Leap Ridge Advisors LLP, heading the firm's tax practice
- H Padamchand Khincha, Partner in HC Khincha & Co, Bangalore
- S. Krishnan, International tax professional and ex-Vice President and Group Head - International Taxation at Infosys Limited
- Prof. Nigam Nuggehalli, Associate Professor at Azim Premji University, Bangalore

This book touches upon issues that are on the forefront of taxation concerns in India at the moment.
